Mayor Barber advised that he had had some discussions with both Clarke County and Madison County about restricting big trucks from traveling along Old Elberton Road however nothing has been decided at this time.

Ms. Elkins inquired of Mayor and Council about what could be done about her neighbors who have rooster, ducks and turkey who are a nuisance to her. Attorney Love indicated that he did not see anything in the City Ordinances that prevents this but will look at it further and have more to report at the September meeting. Council Member Paige Phillips suggested that the city might want to re-visit the Intergovernmental Agreement with the County that was rejected by Mayor and Council several months ago. This will also be discussed at the September meeting.

There being no further business at the time the meeting was adjourned after a motion by Mike McElroy and a second by Steven Hollingsworth.
